Local Matters.

Friday Morning, 2nd February 4, 1859.

Mr. E. W. Nevill, of Merriweather's Landing, Malone, has a post office in the city, which is a matter of some importance to him. It

TRADE.——For his useful exchanges we are indebted to Mr. Latimer, agent of the Columbia railway, and to our native friend, Best, of that excellent institution, Adams & Co., Exchange.

BEST'S COURT.——Bocour, Esq. had his two customers for justice yesterday. Only five cases were before him. He gave the white folks time to change, and the black ones time to appear, according to their several deserts.

ACCUSERS OF A BURGER.——Two accusers in the city, instead of selling a lot of whisky yesterday, drank it. The liquor kept going—going—and before very long had all the strength of the city in the hands of those who were "green." The were arrested, and will, this morning, have to account for the sale to the City Recorder, who will require for the city the cash profits of the transaction.

WE TAKE PLEASURE IN RECOMMENDING our daily readers in the various rooms of Tyler & Co., 101 Main Street, to obtain a place to obtain silk dresses.

OUR CLOTHING.——We can recommend them to the European Express Company, Capt. Joseph G. Clark, well known to Louisville in four parts.

THE NEW YORKING.——Capt. John L. Wilson, New York, has a boat which will leave for the City Recorder, who will require for the city the cash profits of the transaction.

TRANSPORTATION OF THE MAIL.——The Postmaster-General estimates, says the New York Herald, that about a million dollars are sent annually by mail between the states between the United States and foreign countries, and from New York to New Orleans and San Francisco, and back, for this fiscal year.

The larger part of the service is to be paid with gold and other precious metals. No new laws are recommended.

MARINE HORSES.——We invite attention to the advertisement of Messrs. Fairchild & Morris, who have removed their fashionable establishment to the Brinkley Block, on Main Street, where they are to be found.

OUR SUEZIAN PROPERTY.——Is still on the market. The tract contains eleven and one-half acres, and is situated, being bounded by a line of heavy trees in the river below Krokodil, and only three miles from the town. The lot opposite Old Fellow's Hall, Prizes of portmanteau from $50 to $500. Tyler & Co.

FLOUR MILLS ARE RUNNING.

Choice flour, at the lowest prices, can be had in the mills of the city, and at Main Street, the highest price paid for wheat.
